

My name is Latoya Lewis-Murray, I am a nurse working in Ottawa who also holds a license as an addiction counselor (CCAC).

I joined this committee to network and learn as much as I can as I plan to open my private practice in the future. I also want to use my knowledge and expertise working as a nurse and educator to offer input as much as possible to other committee members for the betterment of our organization.